The Senior Class of S. H. S. Presents the 1923 Capitoline

Holume 14

Foreword.

THE life history of the Senior Class of 1923 has been brought to a close. The Seniors are entering on the threshold of a new era, with the youthful ambition to carve their names high and in true Red and Black spirit to carry on the honor of Springfield High School.

Within a few years our class will be scattered in the four directions, life's ambitions will be realized, hopes destroyed. Some will have reached high on the ladder of success; others will not have been so successful. Still a few of us will have heard the call and passed into eternal peace beyond the great divide.

Our finished work is hereby presented to accomplish several purposes. To keep alive in the memories of our fellow classmates the various activities of the year; to tell the history of our school life in picture and story; and to let the people of Springfield know just what the students in the Springfield High School have been doing.

With the hope that it will please and interest you in the present, and in the future serve as a guide in leading you back to the recollections and memories of life amid pleasing thoughts of school activities, the Capitoline Staff presents the 1923 Capitoline, the fourteenth volume of its kind.

Senior Class History.

THE majority of the Senior Class of 1923 entered this school in September, 1919, but little was heard of us the first year, except when our basketball team broke into the limelight with second place.

When we came back in September though, we were big enough to make room for ourselves, and proceeded to place three members of the class on the football team, two on the basketball team, three on the baseball team, and four on the track team. We also placed second in basketball again.

The Sophomores of this year had the strongest team ever entered in the indoor track meet, winning easily with double the points of their nearest rivals, the Juniors. The Sophomores as a class also presented an excellent assembly program this year.

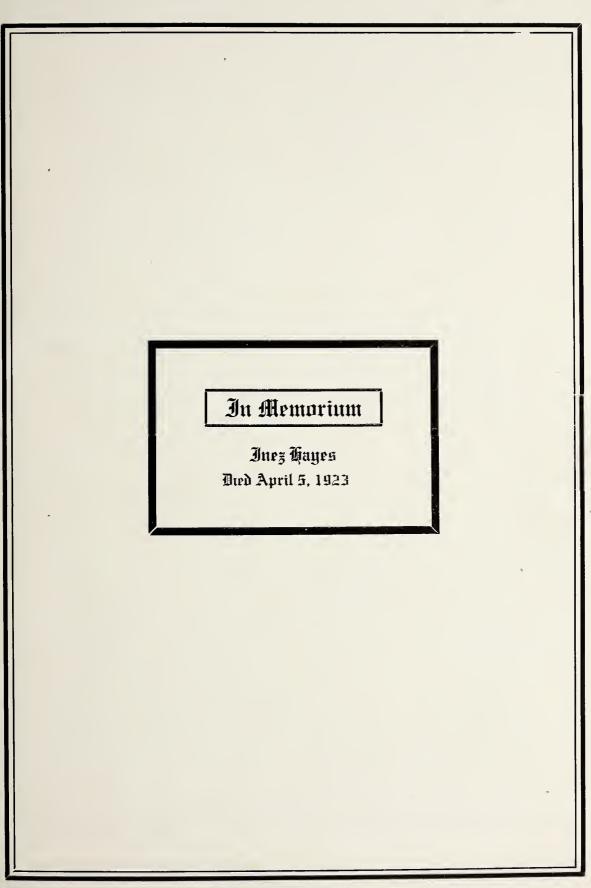

We began our third year with about 280 in the class. Of these a large number were again on the varsity athletic teams. We won the indoor track meet, and for the third time placed second in class basketball. In the extemporaneous speaking contest we won second place. Our class ranked second in scholarship.

When we returned for the last lap of our high school career we found that our ranks had shrunken, but on the other hand we gladly welcomed several students from other schools and resolved to make the best record this year. Eleven Seniors played on the football team and Seniors formed the best part of the other athletic teams with three captains among them.

On Friday, April 13, we defied the jinx and won the indoor meet for the third consecutive time and set a record that will undoubtedly remain for years. Ten of the debaters were Seniors.

The Class of 1923 will leave behind it not only a trophy case as a memorial, but also a record which will, we hope, last as long.

And, now, Springfield High, farewell.

The Junior Class.

N rounding out its third year of existence in Springfield High School, the class of '24 has made a splendid record, and has led the entire school on a number of occasions. The Juniors demonstrated that they were worthy of representing the S. H. S. as Seniors.

At the beginning of the first semester, class officers were elected. These were: Jack Orr, President; James Richey, Vice-President; Jerome Webb, Secretary; Frances Henne, Treasurer. The Junior Class owes much of its  $succ \in ss$  to the faculty advisor, C. A. Stevens.

SOPHOMORE

The Sophomore Class.

HE Class of '25 has earned the honor of being the largest of any of the classes that have ever entered Springfield High School. The class in its second year is still one of the largest.

At the beginning of the year, the following class officers were elected-President, George Irwin; Vice-President, Dexter Masters; Secretary, Jane Kimble; Treasurer, Andrew Nelson. Sudduth Hurt and Helen Smith served as senators for the class.

The class owes much of its success to S. S. Simpson, who served in the capacity of faculty advisor.

The Sophomores displayed much athletic prowess when they took third place in the annual inter-class track meet, when they finished only two points behind the winners.

The Freshman Class.

THE Class of 1926 has made its entrance into high school life, 619 strong. When still mystified by the location of the class rooms, the Freshmen elected session room representatives and class officers. Lester Smith was chosen President, while the Vice-President was LeRoy Beeler. Paul O'Leary was made Secretary, and Joe McLaughlin was given the office of Treasurer. The Senators from the class were Lucille Berry and Kenneth Beatty.

Although the class athletes succeeded in only making fourth place in the inter-class track meet, from the amount of promising physical material which the contest brought out, S. H. S. need have no fear for her athletic future.

In the scholarship line the Freshmen have done well, improving on the standard of previous first year classes.

Their challenge to the upper classes is, "Give us time and watch us form the S. H. S. of the future!"

Correct Clothes For The Young Man

The young man—full of life and inclined to constant activity—naturally has a liking for Garments with snap to their lines and colors. He is the fellow we advise to come here and choose from our wide variety of young men's clothing and furnishings.

505 EAST MONROE ST.

"EXCLUSIVE BUT NOT EXPENSIVE"

William Baird

URING his three years at our Alma Mater, he has turned out teams in every branch of sport that have not only surpassed those of former years, but have been the envy and fear of all the schools in this section of the state. Of all our major sports Coach Baird's men have not only won an overwhelming majority of all the contests, but our alumni, as a result of his tutelage, have gone forth to take their place, with the pick of the country, on the athletic teams of colleges and universities.

Mr. Baird	Charles McGavin
Mr. Tragathon	Frances Bryden
Mr. Henke	Lawrence Ryan
Mr. Davis	James Saries

The Athletic Board of Control, the organization which controls athletics in Springfield High School, is composed of five faculty and five student members. During the past year the object of this group has been to stimulate the sense of good-sportsmanship which has been the governing power in S. H. S. in the last few years.

Season Tickets were sold this year to students for $2.00 and to adults for $2.50. Besides athletic contests the tickets included the subscription to the Bulletin, and debating meets. Six hundred tickets were sold in this campaign.

After the untiring efforts of many of the school's most prominent backers of sport, Springfield succeeded in having the District Basketball Tournament assigned here. Seven sessions, covering March first, second and third, completed the tournament, which was a great success from both an advertising and a financial standpoint.

Faculty Manager Buley

Asst. Coach Roellig

Faculty Manager R. C. Buley.

A large amount of credit for Springfield's success in athletics in the last few years is due to R. C. Buley. Fairness and squareness have been the watchwords in S. H. S. since Mr. Buley has been the faculty manager. He supports the teams to the utmost and has put athletics on a firm financial basis. He has made S. H. S. one of the few high schools in the state with four major sports.

Assistant Coach William Roellig.

William Roellig, as assistant coach, has proved to be a great aid in building up successful athletic teams. He has had complete charge of the baseball team and the results certainly speak for themselves.

1922 Football Season.

S. H. S.—BEARDSTOWN.

Springfield High School's grid team opened their schedule on September 30 when Beardstown invaded the local lot. Expecting very stiff competition, the Springfield boys were prepared for a hard battle, but the game was marked by an easy triumph for S. H. S. The score was 71-0.

S. H. S.-LINCOLN.

Jubilant over their exhibition against Beardstown, Baird's men turned their attention to the strong Lincoln crew. A large crowd was out to witness the combat. Unable to withstand the onslaught of the visitors, Springfield was forced to take a 19-0 defeat. During this game three of Springfield's players were injured.

S. H. S .- DANVILLE.

With one score to their credit and one against them, the Red and Black journeyed to Danville, with a badly demoralized team. The game was slow and with a lack of pep. As a result Springfield lost by a 24–0 count.

S. H. S .- CARLINVILLE.

In the next battle Springfield demonstrated a little improvement over their former showings. For three scoreless quarters the two teams fought, with the Red and Black in Carlinville's territory most of the time. In the fourth quarter Carlinville opened up with forward passes, which the locals were unable to break up, and the game ended 12-0 in Carlinville's favor.

S. H. S.--URBANA.

The following Saturday, Springfield journeyed to Urbana. The game started with a fumble by Springfield which enabled Urbana to make a touchdown in the first minute of play. The rest of the fight the Red and Black played them to a standstill but was unable to overcome the three point lead. The contest ended with Urbana on top, 9-6.

S. H. S .- JACKSONVILLE.

Chagrined with four successive defeats, Springfield decided to beat Jacksonville or die in the attempt. The visitors expected to place another victory on its list, but had the fight of its life. The game ended with Jacksonville on the small end of a 19-0 score.

S. H. S.—BLOOMINGTON.

November 25, Bloomington came down to battle the Red and Black. Playing the same brand of fcotball that gave the much-touted Jacksonville team a beating, Bloomington was overwhelmed by a 33-0 massacre.

S. H. S.—DECATUR.

After hitting its stride, the Red and Black team prepared for the old enemy, Decatur, who was scheduled for Thanksgiving. The game was staged on a muddy field with rain falling every few minutes. Decatur displayed more football ability than any team which Springfield met this year, but they had to take a 21–3 count, which evened up for the defeat received from them in 1920.

CHARLES "TARZAN"
PETEFISH, Captain.
All-state tackle.

JONES.

"Bones" worked hard as student manager.

SCHAFFNER.

"Bill" broke up many an end run.

TATE.

"Kenny's" playing was always hard and furious.

ATTEBERRY.

"Bob" was the first ever known to be converted into a field general in twenty-four hours.

THOMPSON.

At defense Ray was always at the bottom of the "upsets."

HYNDMAN.

Injuries kept him out of the lineup but he was a "bear," when he was on the field.

CARDONI.

"Door Knob" made many sensational end runs.

GREENUP.

Though Charley was green at the game, he had the fight and determination that makes a real player.

HALL.

Hall's four years' experience developed him into a valuable man.

BOLLMAN.

"Fat" was a center who could be counted on to do his job right.

RICHEY.

When "Jim" learned to catch passes there wasn't a better scoring man on the field.

J. TOMLINSON.

"Johnny" finished his fourth year of football in great style.

CARNES.

Bob, as fullback, was a very successful battering ram. A good man at passing, too. Fullback on second all-state team.

WATTS.

At center or guard, Watts was a man who could be counted on to do his work effectively.

PETERS.

"Little Pete" was a whirlwind at left half. We're glad he came and sorry he goes.

TOMLINSON.

This baby giant has three more years to play center. Just watch him.

Basketball Season of 1922-23.

THE 1922-23 basketball season was a series of ups and downs in more ways than victories. A large squad turned out at the first call for practice and every member stuck to the end. With four regulars and four letter men of previous years, prospects of a successful season were evident. To this number was added a bunch of "Freshmen." Local fans were justified in hopes and in dreams of a successful season, which, by hard fighting and vim, Baird and his boys worked that their dreams should come true.

The season opened with two victories for Springfield, both being one-sided games. Things had begun to look rosy for us, when Jacksonville, our next opponent, took a slow game from us, which was featured by poor playing on our team's part. The next game was a repetition of the previous one, also featured by poor defensive work on the part of Springfield, and Athens was able to fight their way to victory.

However, the end of our ill luck had come, for in the next few games Springfield was always able to come out with the big end of the score. The first of these victories was over Taylorville. Following this game Decatur fell before our boys 29–11 and in the return game on our own floor we duplicated the same feat which has not been done in many years. Next to lose to the Red and Black was Athens.

Things began to look dull for our winning streak as four of our regular team were dropped by graduation in February. They were Parkinson, Schnepp, Schaffner and Hyndman. Baird was forced to build a new combination for the following week to meet Jacksonville. The new team worked as well as the old for we took that game with apparent ease, beating them 21–14, which more than evened up the defeat received at their hands earlier in the season.

The following week Baird took his squad to Lincoln, where they came out ahead in a fast game, 26–15, which showed that both teams had good material for a district championship team. With two more games to play before the tournament, Springfield was determined to not only win these but to beat the record of any team the school had produced since 1916. As a result we took both games, with Taylorville and Decatur, which were said to be the fastest ever played by a Springfield team on the home floor.

Hopes ran high for a championship in the District Tournament, and our closest rival was Taylorville. In our first game with Carlinville we were forced to keep all our first string men in for their team guarded well and were heavy so only one substitution was made. The following day we met Taylorville, who with fresh men won over our fellows in the hottest fought game in the tournament by a score of 16–13.

CHARLES GREENUP, Captain. The fastest and scrappiest little center a team could hope for.

DONALD SCHNEPP, Captain-Elect. "Don" has the old Red and Black fight.

PARKINSON.

"Ted" served as captain till February; he played a good game at the pivot position.

K. SCHNEPP.

We were sorry to lose this fighting forward in mid-year.

PETERS.

"Little Pete" learned the game and developed into a good forward.

MADDEN.

Paul was chosen "all-district" guard. Need anything more be said?

HYNDMAN.

A valuable "Shooting Star" whom we lost by mid-year graduation.

SCHAFFNER.

One of the best players seen in action on the  $S.\ H.\ S.$  floor was the way the critics put it.

PETEFISH.

Even the big men were afraid of Pete.

BLANDIN.

 $\boldsymbol{A}$  new man who did well this year and who is expected to do better next year.

Baird, Blandin, Schaffner, Madden, K. Schnepp, Peters, Lochman. Woodson, Thompson, Hyndman, Greenup, Parkinson, Carnes, Jackson. D. Schnepp, Thomas, Miller, Garrett, Petefish.

District Tournament at Springfield.

A FTER working tirelessly for many weeks Mr. Buley finally succeeded in getting the district tournament at Springfield this year.

At 3:10 on the evening of March 1st, nine high school teams lined up to fight their opening round. The first contest was easily won by Morrison-ville, 16-4, the victim being Divernon.

This second game was very rough, one man being retired on four fouls and two others having three each. Taylorville, the winner, counted out Girard by a 28-8 count.

Thrills and excitement galore were furnished in the third game between New Berlin and Benld. Two overtime periods had to be played before New Berlin was able to count out Benld. The final score was 17–15.

Springfield's first clash of the tournament was with Carlinville, who gave them a strong tussel for the first three quarters, their weight being too much for the lighter Springfield team. Springfield finally put the blues on Carlinville by a 29-8 count.

Raymond won their first game by a forfeiture of the Wagoner High School team.

Gillespic won their initial game against Virden by a 15-6 score on the morning of March 2nd. They played Auburn on the afternoon of the same day and counted out Auburn 19-16. On the evening of March 3, Gillespie met Taylorville for the final match to decide the winner, but were forced to take the old ghost route.

On the morning of March 2, Modesto downed Dawson 15-12 and at night they upset Auburn's hopes by winning 19-16.

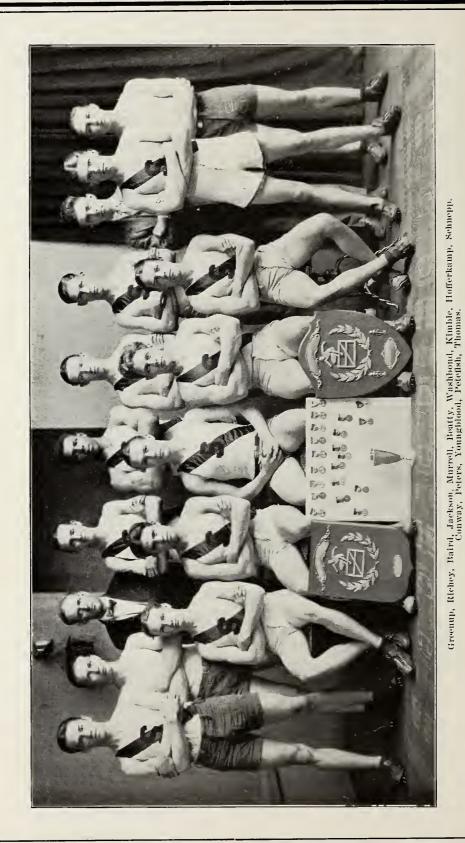

Size soon told on speed when the Morrisonville huskies took a hot contest from Ashland 19–18, only to be beaten by New Berlin 21–15 in a slow contest at 8 P. M. on the same day.

New Berlin earned the right to meet Taylorville in the finals and gave one of the best exhibitions of basketball playing seen on the floor during the whole tournament. Although much lighter than the Taylorville squad, they made up for it in speed and fight and were nosed out only by a few points.

One of the greatest disappointments dealt to the Springfield rooters was the heart-breaking contest which we lost to Taylorville. In both games of the season with Taylorville before the tournament, Springfield trounced them in fine shape. Hopes had run high for many weeks, only to be dashed to pieces when Springfield was eliminated from the tournament by a 16–13 score.

The district tournament turned out to be a success, as far as good and exciting games were concerned and also from the financial standpoint. Many season tickets were sold in addition to the money taken in at the door.

It is hoped another tournament can be secured in the near future.

Track, 1923.

B Y making a good showing in a dual meet with one of the best track teams in the state, by winning the championship in two of the largest interscholastic meets in the middle west and by placing high in the state meet, Springfield's track team has enjoyed one of the best years in its career.

URBANA-SPRINGFIELD DUAL MEET.

A two-point margin is a hard margin to lose to, but the Red and Black fought valiantly until the last event in trying to overcome the lead that Urbana gained on us. The final score was 66-64.

The meet was featured by close finishes. The meet produced several promising men. Among these were Washboud in the pole vault, Hofferkamp in the 440, and Peters in the broad jump, while several men ranked close seconds in the various events. Our relay team won by a close margin, bringing the score up to within 2 of tying.

EASTERN ILLINOIS, CHARLESTON.

At Charleston, Springfield proved her worth by copping the championship. Schools of Eastern Illinois, including such schools as Urbana, Champaign and Danville, were represented at the meet. Five Springfield men won first places, they were Murrell, high point winner with 11 points chalked up to his credit. He won the shot, discus, and fourth in the javelin; Peters took the broad jump; Washbond won the polevault; Hofferkamp second in 440, and Petefish second in the low hurdles and fourth in the hammer throw.

MILLIKIN MEET.

In the Millikin meet the competition was much keener, but Springfield again repeated the success of the previous week by winning first place.

Murrell starred in the weights, winning the discus and taking second in the shotput. Washbond won the pole vault, while Thomas succeeded in tying for second in the same event. Petefish won the fifty-yard dash and placed fourth in the low hurdles. Peters won the broad jump, Hofferkamp took his race in the 440, while Greenup placed third in the second heat of the 440. Beatty, a new man, pulled a surprise by winning third in the half mile. The final score was 36½ points for S. H. S. Forrest was second with 24 points, while Carlinville placed third with 21½. Champaign won both relays.

STATE MEET.

Old Man "Jinx" seemed to be among our athletes in the Illinois meet, as none of our men came up to their standard. We succeeded in placing Petefish in the finals of the 50-yard dash for the second day, Peters in the low hurdles, Murrell shot and discus, Youngblood in 50 and 100-yard dash.

But the following day our boys seemed to be "way off," for they fell below standard. Our only points were scored by Murrell in the shot and in the discus, while Washbond and Thomas tied with five others for third place in the pole vault.

YOUNGBLOOD (Captain).

"Andy" was a fast man in the dashes and anchor man on the half-mile relay team. He has another year.

JOHN KIMBLE (Student Manager).

. When it came to service he was always ready.

PETEFISH.

"Pete" was a good all-round athlete.

THOMAS.

"Rolly" is a promising young man in the pole vault and broad jump.

HOFFERKAMP.

Wayne was our speed-boy in the quarter.

PETERS.

"Johnny" was a big cog in our scoring machine, winning the broad jump in three meets.

GREENUP.

"Charley" made good time in the quarter and ran on the mile relay team.

MURRELL.

Hiram won 43 points in the weight events. There wasn't a better man in the state.

WASHBOND.

Harry won the pole vault in three meets and placed at the state meet.

BEATTY.

"Kenny," only a Freshman, should be a good man in the half mile before he leaves.

JACKSON.

"Skinny" with his long legs could run any man a good race in the high hurdles.

Baseball.

BASEBALL, the greatest of American games, came into the limelight this year at the Springfield High School. The hopes of the team looked very slim with the loss of men through eligibility troubles and discontinuance of school, which took several very promising candidates.

The team's average this year even surpasses that of last year, which was classed as a very successful season. This year the baseball schedule was the stiffest schedule yet booked for the local high school since baseball became a major sport. Out of six games, which are the only ones played up to the time the Capitoline goes to press, only two have been lost.

Coach Roellig, at the beginning of the season, had only five last year's letter men. They were: Captain Thompson, pitcher; Murphy, second base; Myers, shortstop; Cardoni and Bitchenauer, fielders. With these men as a nucleus a strong team was built which could hold its own with any team in the state.

East St. Louis, our first game on the schedule, was cancelled on account of rain. A game with East St. Louis was secured for the 19th of May, a later date.

Illiopolis, the second game on the schedule, was downed by the score of 10-3. The Springfield team with timely hitting, romped away with the first victory of the season.

On April 28th the Red and Black journeyed to Jacksonville to play the Illinois State School for the Deaf and Dumb. With an avalanch of hits and runs in the eighth and ninth innings, Springfield carried off the honors, defeating Jacksonville 8-3, thereby winning their second game of the season.

The first defeat of the season was received from Virden in a fizzle contest in which all the players contributed their share of the poor playing. Virden, by securing all the breaks, won by the close score of 6-5.

On May 16th, with two wins and one defeat chalked against them, the Red and Black met Virden High School. Revenge for the defeat received at the hands of the Virdenites, the preceding week, came very sweet. Fourteen Virden men were retired by the old ghost route. The final score was 11-2.

A return game with the Illinois State School of Jacksonville was played on our own field, Friday, the 18th. The Red and Black came through with their fourth win of the season by winning over Jacksonville 4-1.

East St. Louis, the strongest team on the schedule, was slated to play at Springfield Saturday, May 19th. In one of the best games that Springfield High School has played, the Red and Black fell, 2-1 before East St. Louis. The game was anybody's game from start to finish. On May 26th the team was rained out of another game which was to be played at Illiopolis.

The total runs scored by Coach Roellig's team for the first six games is 39, while the opponents only crossed the plate 17 times.

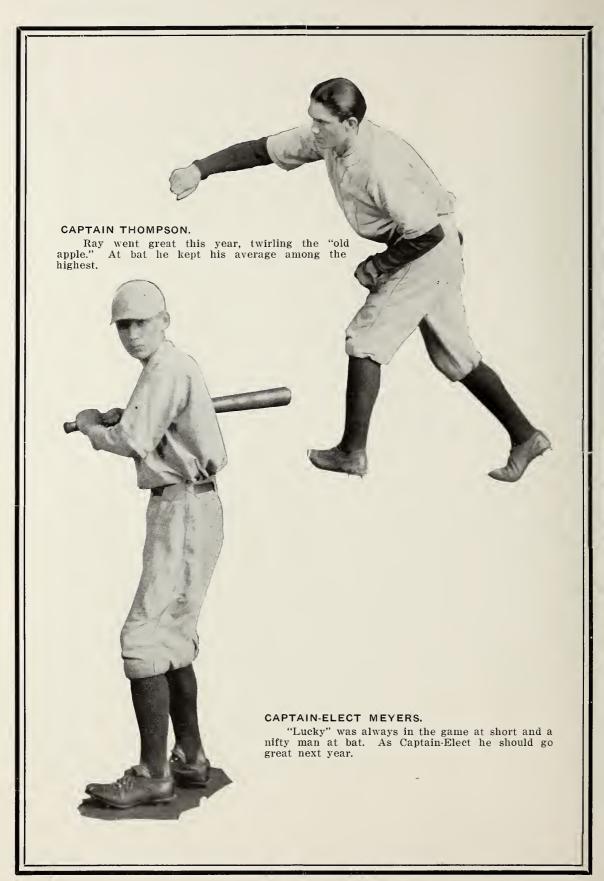

Next year will find the Red and Black with five vacancies to fill by loss through graduation. They are: Captain "Ray" Thompson, pitcher; "Dev" Murphy, second base; "Hump" Cardoni and "Slack Pit" Young, fielders, and "Roy" Gaudlitz, first base.

Fred Myers, small, scrappy shortstop for two years, was elected captain for next year. Fred is one of the best shortstops in the state and will make an ideal leader of the diamond next year.

As a result for their hard and consistent playing this season, the following men received the coveted "S" at the recognition assembly: Captain Thompson, DeCamera, Myers, Galasse, Gaudlitz, Murphy, Gillespie, Grigiski, England, Cardoni, Bitchenauer and Young.

ENGLAND.

"Eddie" in left field did more than his share to win games.

MURPHY.

"Irish" at second was a very dependable player.

GILLESPIE.

At third "Joe" was going great at the end of the season.

GRIGISKI.

"Dom," a consistent player at third, but at bat he is still better.

BITCHENAEUR.

In center field "Al" played a consistent game of ball. An all around man.

YOUNG.

"Lefty" played an alternating game in left and center field.

GAUDLITZ.

At first base "Roy" played a good game.

CARDONI.

"Hans" in right field was a very valuable man. He was a wonder with a bat.

DECAMERA.

"Les" played a consistent game behind the bat. Watch him go next season.

GALASSE.

A new man, "Frank" made good from the start. Alternating with Capt. Ray on the mound.

WOLGAMOT.

"Wolgie" as student manager was right there.

Wolgannot, Grigdski, Galasse, Gillespie, Gaudlitz, Murphy, DeCamera, Roellig. Bitcheneaur, England, Myers, Thompson, Cardoni, Young.

Indoor Track Meet.

B Y winning the Inter-Class Track Meet in 1923, the third time in as many years, the Senior Class of '23 has established a record that will probably stand unbroken for many years.

This year's classic was by far the hardest fought ever held at S. H. S. in the fifteen years that the inter-class affair has become an institution in Springfield High.

The Seniors finished first with 46 points. The Juniors followed with 45, while the second-year class annexed 44. The Freshmen lived up to expectations and finished in their usual position. Following are the list of events:

50-yard Dash (100 lb. limit).

50-yard Dash (open).

Mile Run.

Midget Relay (115 lb. limit).

440-yard Dash (open).

440-yard Dash (115 lb. limit).

Shot Put (12 lbs.)

60-yard Low Hurdles.

220-yard Dash.

Standing Broad Jump.

Running High Jump.

880-yard Run.

Mile Relay.

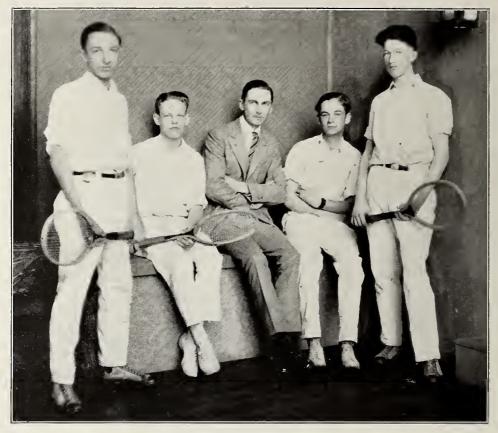

Half Mile Relay.

Inter-Class Basketball.

A unusual amount of interest was created in the annual Inter-Class Basketball Tournament held under the supervision of Coach Baird. After a number of hard fought contests the Seniors proved superior and copped the championship honors in the heavyweight. The Sophomores were equally plucky and emerged victorious in the lightweight division.

Golf.

In the spring of the year, the Annual Golf Tournament was held, in which the champion of the school was ascertained. The winner received the rotating Lanphier Cup for one year.

McGavin, Buffington, R. C. Buley, H. Buley, Welch.

Tennis.

N spite of many matches being cancelled because of bad weather the Springfield High School tennis team, composed of Howard Buley, Charles McGavin, Arthur Buffington and Paul Welch, has made a remarkable showing during the past season.

With Urbana as their opponents in their first meet they decisively won two singles matches and one doubles match.

In the state meet Buley won his first round by default, but was defeated 6-4, 6-3 in the second round. McGavin lost his first round 12-10, 2-6, 6-3, while Welch went the farthest, lasting until the round before the semi-finals, when he was defeated 6-3, 6-2.

In the doubles McGavin and Buley played through two rounds, but lost the third round 6-2, 6-1. Buffington and Welch also lasted until the third round, but were then defeated 6-3, 6-2.

The school tournament brought out a large number of contestants and revealed some promising material for next season.

Duke, Odell, Lanphier, Flynn, Thomas.

Golf.

OLF, as a minor sport in S. H. S., has grown rapidly in the last few years. It has brought out a great number of enthusiasts who, though inexperienced, have practised faithfully to build up a good team.

The team this year was made up of Charles Flynn, Dale Thomas, Jack Lanphier and Robert Odell. Although they have not won the majority of their meets, they have turned in excellent score cards. The state meet at Urbana was the biggest event of the season. In this the Springfield boys turned in scores that were better than the average, although they were some points higher than those of the winners.

The school tournament is expected to bring out a great deal of new material from which next year's team will be chosen. A gold watch fob will be given to the winner.

As a particular climax of the season Mr. Robert Lamphier offered a large loving cup to be presented to the winner of the school tournament and to be kept permanently by a contestant who wins it three successive years. This was presented to Jack Lamphier for winning the tournament last year.

MR. DAVIS.

MR. THOMAS.

THE two men who we have to thank for our successful season are Assistant Principal Lyman K. Davis, and Mr. Russel B. Thomas of the English Department. Mr. Davis is the regular debate coach, and Mr. Thomas is the teacher of the debate class. Both of these men have had much experience in debating.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of the University of Illinois in the Class of 1919. After coaching debate at Hillsboro, Illinois, a short time, he came to S. H. S. and has coached a winning team every year since then.

Mr. Thomas is a graduate of Eureka College in the Class of 1920. Before coming to S. H. S., he coached debate in Gibson City, Illinois. He joined us last year.

Debate.

DECATUR AT SPRINGFIELD.

Two months of parley, two weeks of real work, and then the eventful day—December 14, 1922.

"Resolved that we should have a national board of arbitration to settle labor disputes," was the subject so convincingly upheld by Springfield's affirmative team, composed of Lucille Breeding, Earl Cruthis, and Lish Whitson.

Lucille, though only a sophomore and "new at the game," showed very effectively that compulsory arbitration was needed and was supported by the country's best authorities.

Earl put over his arguments in fine style and proved that compulsory arbitration was superior to all the other plans which had been suggested.

Lish ended the argument in a very convincing fashion by showing that compulsory arbitration was suited to the country's needs.

Decatur put up a strong fight, but even Miss Sloan's forceful speech failed to win the necessary two decisions, and Springfield won 2-1.

SPRINGFIELD AT DECATUR.

Thursday afternoon, December 14, S. H. S. was the scene of many fond farewells. Good-bye and good luck was the parting word as Elizabeth O'Hara, George Hockenyos and Stanley Weisz left for Decatur to uphold the name of S. H. S. Mr. Russell Thomas, Assistant Coach, accompanied the team, which left at four o'clock via the I. T. S.

Elizabeth O'Hara, first speaker for the negative, presented seven plans equally as satisfactory as the proposed plan of compulsory arbitration. She also gave facts to show that experience did not favor the plan.

George Hockenyos, in his plain, straightforward manner, continued the argument by showing that compulsory arbitration did not remove the cause of strikes.

Stanley Weisz completed the constructive speeches by showing that their plan was not the best plan and presented the negative's plan—namely a minimum wage law.

The Decaturites all did well, but they succeeded in getting only one decision. To prove that they held no malice against us the Springfield team was given a delightful luncheon and reception following the debate. While thus entertained, word was received from Springfield by wireless of the 2-1 victory at home. A happy team remained in Decatur to celebrate, returning home Friday morning.

On the eventful evening, April 27, 1923, S. H. S. undertook one of the greatest feats that has ever been attempted by a high school, that of staging five debates during the same evening. With nine inexperienced debaters and six with only one debate to their credit, Mr. Davis, assisted by Mr. Thomas, produced five teams, three of which were victorious.

Jacksonville, Quincy, Taylorville, Decatur, and Auburn competed with our teams. The debates with Jacksonville and Quincy were a continuation of the old triangular league but Decatur, Auburn and Taylorville were new contestants.

"Resolved that United States should subsidize all ships flying the American flag if used for the benefit of the public," was the subject so forcefully discussed by the five teams.

S. H. S. had three negative and two affirmative teams, our Quincy and Decatur teams upheld the affirmative, while the other three teams debated the negative side of the question. Both sides were well debated, as only one affirmative and one negative debate was lost.

QUINCY AT SPRINGFIELD.

James Richey

Elizabeth O'Hara

Stanley Weisz

Before a good crowd the home trio upheld the school name, and after a heated discussion succeeded in getting a two to one decision. The third Quincy speaker showed great ability, especially in rebuttal, but when Springfield presented them with a Congressional Record, containing the facts, the debate was turned in our favor.

SPRINGFIELD AT JACKSONVILLE.

Frances Bryden

Fred Bailey

George Hockenyos

The old standard and record of Springfield in the triangular league was repeated when S. H. S. took the debates two to one from both Jacksonville and Quincy. Jacksonville put up a good fight, but Springfield rebuttals were superior and the home team lost.

SPRINGFIELD AT DECATUR.

Earl Cruthis

Robert Scharf

Lucille Breeding

Though the constructive arguments of both teams were about evenly matched, rebuttals were weak. Decatur came out ahead, however, in spite of the sarcastic attitude of its team, and a three to nothing (3-0) decision was recorded.

SPRINGFIELD AT TAYLORVILLE.

Mary McDonald

Arthur McKinnic

Lish Whitson

In spite of the threatening weather the team drove to Taylorville. Both teams showed good coaching and real work, but here again Springfield had the upper hand in rebuttals and a two to one vote was given.

SPRINGFIELD AT AUBURN.

Helen Solenberger

John Kimble

James Cassiday

Though Springfield seemed to have the better arguments and rebuttals, the judges, after a heated conference, gave a two to one decision to Auburn. The Springfield team worked hard, and though the decision went against them, they deserve equal credit with the victorious teams.

SUMMARY.

Considering the fact that S. H. S. had all new material three debates out of five was a good number. For the whole year Springfield has five debates to her credit out of the seven she took part in, while for three years she has lost only two debates out of seventeen.

The Justice Court.

FTER "Dad" Elliott's vigorous "Come Clean Campaign," an effort was made to perpetuate his good work by organizing "The Justice Court." This body consists of seven individuals duly elected by the male members of the student body and vested with the authority to control smoking, swearing, gambling and all cases of disorderly conduct which concerns male students of the high school and occurs within two blocks of the school campus. Its work is done independently and without advice from any members of the faculty, although the faculty supports all decisions and sentences which the court renders.

Charges against any member of the student body may be turned in by any other student in good standing. Witnesses of the act as stated in the charge, must be produced. Their testimony is given and they are then subjected to a cross-examination by any member of the court or by the defendant. The latter is then given an opportunity to plead his case. The seven members then retire and weigh the evidence and fix the sentence.

The object of the court is to uplift the moral standard of the school and to eliminate all forms of vice under its jurisdiction.

Members of the Court are:

The Senate is the most important body in our system of student government, and is composed of two senators from each class, chosen from the four houses of representatives. Under the supervision of Mr. Willing, the general activities of the school are carried on.

During the last year the Senate has given a number of successful matinee dances, as well as granting dates for society dances. The system started last year, where certain students are left in charge of their rooms during the dinner shifts, thereby enabling the teachers to go to lunch immediately, has been continued even more successfully this year.

After many years of discussion, the Senate of '23 succeeded in having our school song, "Springfield, Oh Mighty Springfield," printed and distributed to the student body. A contest for new songs and yells was also conducted and a number of good ones were selected. A pamphlet containing all yells and songs was also gotten out by the Senate.

Glee Club.

THE Glee Club is the Senior Music Organization of the High School, composed of fifty-seven students chosen from the best material in the school.

Miss Lola Morrison, who came to the Music Department last September, is a most capable and industrious director. The Glee Club is the result of her efficient efforts. This chorus of beautiful voices, has given the students of S. H. S. a musical organization of which they may well be proud.

The Glee Club has appeared several times before the Student Body, giving very interesting performances. The greatest musical program of the year, a most brilliant and successful undertaking, was given May 11, in the high school auditorium. The cantata presented was "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" by Coleridge Taylor. The Glee Club was assisted by J. Henry Welton, tenor, from Chicago, and the orchestra.

Connected with the Glee Club is the male quartet. The quartet composed of Charles Sherman, Walter Binney, Kenneth Schnepp, and Walter Ketterer, is a new feature, which is being established as a permanent organization.

The Orchestra.

"A man without music in his soul is like a plant without a flower."

THE Springfield High School can boast, however, of being a plant with a flower—a flower which blossoms forth into an orchestral rose; whose forty one petals are in the shape of amateurs grouped around its enthusiastic nucleus, Miss Katheryn H. Baxter.

Miss Frances Gardiner planted the seed and with her encouragement, brought the flower to bud, when she was lost to us through her unfortunate death.

Mr. George 'Steinhaus then took charge and under his direction much progress was made and many interesting programs were given. After a year's careful "cultivation" beneath his baton, Miss Baxter took the final lead. Under her capable supervision the "rose" has come into full bloom.

The Orchestra has made many successful appearances during the school year of '22 and during the school year of '22 and '23, and is now acclaimed the best high school orchestra in the State of Illinois outside of Chicago.

In spite of the fact that our musical flower is so popular and well spoken of by both Springfieldians and outsiders, a better equilibrium would be obtained by more bass instruments and 'cellos in the respective sections in addition to:

Eight first and sixteen second violins, two violas, no 'cello, no bass viol, six clarinets, four cornets, one flute, one saxaphone, one trombone, drums and piano.

With the cooperation of the students these additions which we sincerely hope will be included next year, will make Miss Gardiner's ambition for a real symphony orchestra a reality in the near future.

The Bulletin.

THE Bulletin has made rapid progress in development during the past year. So much so that at present S. H. S. has one of the best school papers in the state. Many changes have been made so as to make the paper more enjoyable. That the changes have been successful is evident from the fact that Fridays are looked forward to with anticipation; the Bulletin has found its way to the interest of the entire Student Body.

The Bulletin is a product of the Junior and Senior Classes in Journalism. Recently a system has been invented where each week a different student in the class has complete charge of putting out the paper for that week. Journalism has been offered to Juniors as well as Seniors. Journalism is a course in composition that is given college entrance credit, since it not only teaches writing for the school paper but drills in the essentials of all composition. The method of having the copy set up down town, which allows more news, and printed each week in our print shop is still in use. The Bulletin is the only paper of its kind that does not depend on advertising for its support. An assessment of twentyfive cents placed on every pupil has kept it on a solid financial basis.

Our paper is a leader of the best kind of school spirit; it stands for good sportmanship and ideals of the school. The Bulletin has given its loyal support to athletic contests, campaigns and many other school enterprises.

Societies

THE Springfield Scholarship Society was organized in 1919 with the purpose of giving recognition to those students who attain a high scholastic standing. This recognition makes the honor of having a high scholastic average just as great as that received in athletics or any other school activity, and just as worth while working for. Membership in this Society is open to every graduating student who fulfills the following requirements:

The pupil must have earried his work through his entire high school course with a general average of 85.

He shall have earried at least one major subject with an average of 90 or above.

He shall have participated in some school activity outside the classroom.

After the student has proved his eligibility to membership in the society by fulfilling the above qualifications he receives the following recognitions in a special assembly convened for that purpose:

A bronze seal is placed upon his diploma with a ribbon indicating the particular department in which he has attained high honors.

He is given a certificate from the department in which he has attained high honors, signed by the instructors with whom he had work in that department.

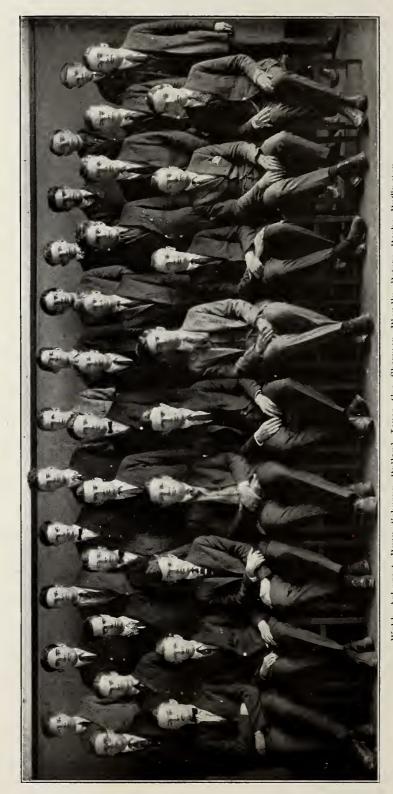

He is given a bronze medal as a permanent recognition of the high esteem the school places upon his achievement.

In the Senior Class of 1923, the following students completed all requirements and have been elected to the Springfield Scholarship Society:

The Wranglers began the year of 1922-23 with the task of securing a new faculty advisor and members to fill the fifteen vacancies made by graduation last June and keeping up the standards of previous years.

We were fortunate to get Mr. Arnett to act as advisor. He was what an advisor should be, a friend and not a dictator.

New members were taken in gradually until all our vacancies were filled. We more than kept up our standards of previous years. We called them. It has always been a custom and duty of the Wranglers to fill the places of leadership in the school. Here is a record of what we did this year:

Three class presidents, two secretaries, one treasurer, two senators, three members of Athletic Board of Control, three members of Justice Court, captain, manager, and three men on the football team, captain and three others of the basketball team, members of debate teams, editor and business manager of Capitoline, two members of class play cast and a number of members of the track and baseball teams.

We broke even in two debates with the Delphics and gave them a hard fight in a basketball game.

The football team was entertained at a dance on December 9th and another dance was given in May.

"In the Zone," a war play by Eugene O'Neil, was presented in an assembly program late in May and was considered quite a success.

The programs at our meeting were of a wide variety, including a talk by Prof. A. R. Crook on "Pre-Historic Men."

The Philos have again added a successful year to their previous triumphs. The work has consisted of the presentation of several plays, supplemented by debates, the study of short stories, books, modern poets and poetry. The meetings are so arranged as to allow an equal amount of time for social enjoyment as well as serious work.

Pledges of decided talent were initiated at the home of Christina Lochman. Their heroism in sustaining the numerous tortures proved their eligibility to become Philos, both physically and mentally.

A Hallowe'en party with ghosts, witches 'neverything was given in honor of the Thalians and Les Bas Bleus. The Philos showed an active and cooperative spirit toward the vaudeville, leading parts being taken by many.

During the holidays a Christmas basket of food with clothing and gifts was taken to a poor family. Early in the second semester the assembly program was presented. It featured "The Turtle Dove," a one-act fantasy.

The high school again had the pleasure of attending a Philo Phrolic. Other events in this year were a mother's party, an alumni party and a senior party.

Twelve moons have waxed and waned since last the scribe of Les Bas Bleus wrote for the Capitoline of the doings of that wondrous group of maidens, and behold! much has come to pass in the twelve moons.

It was in the moon of October, and upon the thirteenth day of that moon that Les Bas sent word to all the maidens desiring to join their illustrious body, saying, "Behold, come ye now unto the homes of Margaret Lloyd and Roberta Conn, and there will we abuse ye full sore, that thy spirits may be chastened sufficiently to enter our honorable number." Then were the new maidens sore afraid, but they went, and lo, they returned alive unto their dwelling-places.

Then in the moon called November, upon the third day thereof, Les Bas spake one to another, "Things wax exceeding dull in this land of Willing," and also do our coffers need replenishment. Let us therefore give a great fair, yea even a county fair." This they did, and many sheckles rolled into their coffers, and the fame of that fair went forth abread.

Then did all the maidens wearing the insignia of Les Bas Bleus join with the maidens of the other clubs in a great and glorious vaudeville, where they twinkled before the footlights clad in divers costumes, and the fame of that vaudeville was exceedingly great.

In the Spring of the year, when the days waxed long, went the damsels unto their mothers, to bid them come unto a gathering of the club. And lo, many of the mothers hied them unto the gathering, and listened to a program, and feasted upon succulent viands, and departed content.

Then in the moon May, when the sun shone brightly, the maidens departed into the wilderness of Washington Park, where they had a mighty picnic, and went their ways, some for the summer, and some forever.

A review of the Delphic activities during the year 1922–23 shows a record of achievements that will, in all probability, remain unequalled for some time. The society was especially successful in debate, placing six of its members on the varsity squads that won five out of seven debates. Delphics were also prominent in other school activities. They were well represented in drama, athletics and in all class offices and activities.

Socially, too, the year was a great success. A wiener roast was enjoyed by the Delphics and their fair ones at the Washington Park Field House early in November. In December, the active society cooperated with the alumni in holding an Eskimo Frolic at Washington lun, which proved an outstanding social event of the Christmas holidays.

The semi-annual Delphic dance in the Housekeeping Suite March 24th was one of the most beautiful dances ever sponsored by a single society. The fifty-three couples that attended were delighted by the Japanese decorations and the drop ceiling of rainbow crepe.

On Friday, April 13th, the society was undaunted by omens of bad luck and presented a burlesque on Shakespeare's immortal "Julius Caesar" in general assembly. From the prologue until the last dead conspirator was dragged off the stage, the audience was kept in continual uproar. Soon after an invitation was received to give the play before the Lion's Club and on May 1st Caesar died another glorious death at the St. Nicholas Hotel as a part of the program at the club's luncheon.

The literary aims of the society were also furthered by a variety of interesting programs. Perhaps the most interesting meetings of the year were held during the last two months when modern humorists were the subject of discussion. In October, two debates were held with the Wranglers on the subject of Compulsory Arbitration for Labor Disputes. The Wranglers won the first but the Delphics came back in the second and won by a 3-0 decision.

The final activity of the year was the Sixth Annual Stag Banquet, which was staged June 23rd at the St. Nicholas Hotel. Talks by the old Delphics, and a few bright remarks by the new, brought the year to a very successful close.

The year 1922-3 has been a very successful year for the Thalian Literary Society.

The programs have been interesting and varied. They have included the readings of Modern Plays and Short Stories with one meeting a semester devoted entirely to original stunts.

The Thalians were responsible for two story hours during the year at Lincoln Library. At Christmas time the society had its share of Christmas Good-will by giving a basket to a poor family.

In the vaudeville leading parts were taken by Mae Carnes, Geraldine Houston, Dorothy Frost, Erma Reed, Lucille Riddle, Beatrice Older and Virginia McDonough.

The Chemistry Club has had a very successful year, during the fourth year of its organization.

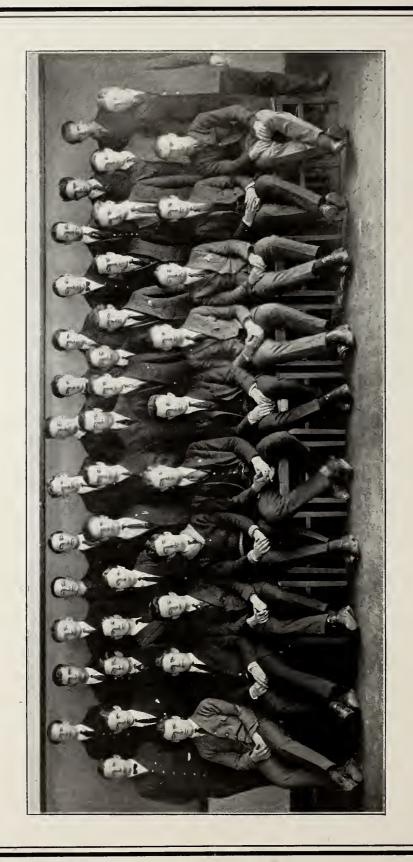

Trips were taken to the Springfield Gas Company, to the water works and to an ice plant, during the year.

Talks before the club were given by Mr. Cline, of the Spring-field Paving Brick Company, Mr. Clark, Dr. A. R. Crook and Dr. O'Hara.

The club had an open house May 19, when the parents of the club members were entertained with interesting experiments and talks and refreshments were served.

A prize of ten dollars was given by the club to the student having the highest average in science for three years.

Great progress has been made by the club during the past year and at the present rate the future looks even greater and more promising. Too much praise cannot be given to Miss Nollen, faculty advisor, who has done much toward making the club a success.

The Hi-Y Club has finished the most successful year since it has been founded. The platform of the Hi-Y Club is Clean Speech, Clean Athletics, Clean Scholarship and Clean Living. Four of the best programs on Tuesday nights at the "Y" were addresses on the 4 C's. During the second semester the Club had Bible discussions on problems of the High School Boy.

"Dad" Elliott's visit here, the S. H. S. being one of the few schools fortunate enough to be visited by him, was due entirely to the efforts of the Hi-Y Club. The Hi-Y Club also led in the fight for better standards which "Dad" upheld.

One of the best basketball teams in the city was the Hi-Y team with Brewster Dickerson as eaptain. The team did two things: practiced "Clean Athletics" and won most of the games with the best teams in this section.

A Hallowe'en social at the "Y" and a spring social at Washington Park were enjoyed by the club.

Hi-Y members were leaders in many branches of school activities and the Hi-Y Club is rated as one of the leading clubs in the school.

The Radio Club of Springfield High School has done some very interesting research work during the past semester.

One very important project undertaken by the club was to attempt to perfect a radio device to be used in mine disasters. Thus far the results have been most encouraging.

The receiving set owned by the High School is to be rebuilt in the near future in order that even better results may be obtained. Application will be filed soon with the Government for an amateur license which will enable the club members to operate a transmitting set.

The Radio Research is the club paper which was established last November. This paper has the distinction of being the first of its kind ever attempted by a High School. Many favorable comments have been received on the paper by schools throughout the United States.

Entertainments have been given by Radio at different times to the members of the faculty.

The fourth year of the Illiola Camp Fire has been very successful. One of our members was on the debate team and several in the class play.

The members took several long likes during the fall and spring months.

The fourth annual progressive dinner was held December 20th.

The girls gave a benefit dance February 16th to raise money to be used for their camping trip next year.

The Camp Fire girls provided food, clothing and toys for poor families at Christmas and Thanksgiving time.

This club was organized in September, 1921. The purpose of the club is to promote athletics and promote a spirit of good fellowship. Business meetings are held the first Monday of each month. Social meetings are held on all other Mondays.

The Hallowe'en party was held at the home of Miss Mather. A number of members were initiated at that time. In November a week-end trip to Glenn Olive was enjoyed by the club. A slumber party was given at the home of Ina Deal.

Hikes and other outdoor sports were engaged in at various times during the year. The outing at Lake Matanza last year was such a pleasure to all that they are planning to spend two weeks there this summer.

This club is a Girl Reserve Club and was organized in October, 1921. It came as an outgrowth of the Girl's Hi Yi and the Girl Reserve Clubs of the previous years.

This year the girls of the club adopted a new honor system for obtaining Girl Reserve rings and have worked long and earnestly to obtain them.

The first thing the club did in the fall was to hold a wedding and to every Mr. Sophisticated Old-Girl to Miss Eager New-Girl.

There were several other social events of the year such as the masquerade party at Hallowe'en time, the taffy pull for Christmas, the Mother and Daughter banquet and a Valentine Party.

The club did social service work on different occasions. They gave a Thanksgiving basket, helped with the Big-sister Christmas Party at the Y. W. C. A. and aided with various activities and banquets at the Y. W. C. A.

Under the leadership of Mr. Eggleston the Searchlight Club's year has been indeed a busy one, for it has been the story of obstacles met and overcome and of success in the end.

The Club held a Hallowe'en party at Washington Park for the purpose of initiating new members. It was conducted in the Ku Klux Klan style with all the members of the club dressed as members of that order.

Of the many interesting programs given weekly during the year was an illustrated talk given by Mr. Eggleston on his trip to Mexico. He threw upon the screen a large number of beantifully tinted slides and by his talk he gave the club members a much better idea of the real beanty of the little known country of Mexico than they had had before.

Another week the club spent a delightful afternoon at the colored Children's Orphanage in amusing the little tots there by a display of beautiful postal cards, shown by lantern and accompanied by little talks explaining each card.

At other meetings there was the practice and discussion of parliamentary law. There were numerous debates and individual recitations and talks. The greater part of these were on civic topics.

This club was organized in March, 1923, all applicants having passed the tests by June. The troop is planning to go on a camping trip in June at Chote Par, Havana, Illinois.

The girls have made money this year by selling eardy at the Indoor Track Meet.

Thanks is due Miss Mather for her efficient work with this group of girls.

In their first year of organization the Girl Scouts have made rapid strides in advancement and have just ended a very successful year. So successful has been the first step in organizing such a troop in Springfield High School that four or five other troops are to be formed next year.

The Unity Club, founded in 1918, is a Literary and Musical Club. Every member appears on the program twice a year in either a musical or literary number. For the last four years at Christmas time the club has made scrap books and donated many presents and toys to the Orphan Children of the Lincoln Colored Home. The society is endeavoring this year to be even more successful than it has been in the past. All Colored High School girls may become members of this club. The society owes much to Mrs. Robic for the encouragement and interest that she has shown toward the club in the past year.

Drama Class.

A S we look into the far future we see many famous actors and aetresses who began their stage eareers on the little stage way up in 301 in Miss Rourke's Class on Dramatic Interpretation.

This class made its first appearance in the Fall of 1922 with twenty-two members, the majority of whom were girls. It is called the Class of Dramatic Interpretation. Although the most interesting it is perhaps, the hardest class in high school and requires much outside work and time, for all rehearsals are held outside of class time. The course is quite extensive, as the history of drama is studied from its origin back in the Greek Worship about 400 or 500 B. C. up through the modern problem plays.

One learns everything in this class. In fact it seems more like a kindergarten class during the construction periods than dignified Senior English. One does stage earpentry, designs artistic stage settings and also tries to produce a record-breaking play.

The stage settings are planned and constructed, costumes designed and made, and the plays are acted and directed all by the students. After the plays are given in class, Miss Rourke takes them in hand and gives them either before an assembly or before various clubs of the city. All plays in assemblies were free last year except one, of which the proceeds were used to buy necessary equipment for the production of more plays.

The class has studied all kinds of plays, realistic, romantic, and symbolic; as well as comedies, farces, tragedies, tragic comedies and melodramas.

Many pupils after beginning their stage career in this class have appeared in the Junior-Senior plays or in the Senior Class play.

The following plays were given by the class: "Spreading the News," by Lady Gregory; "Rosalie," by Max Manrey; "The Merry, Merry Cuekoo," by Jeannette Marks; "Pantaloon," by Sir James Barrie; "The Robbery" by Claire Kummer; "The Marriage Proposal," by Anton Tehekov; "Cousin Kate," second act by H. II. Davies; "Moonshine," by Arthur Hopkins; "Catesby" by Percival Wilde; "Op-O-Me-Thumb," by Frederick Fenn and Richard Price, an Episode from "Dr. Faustus" by Christopher Marlowe; "Indian Summer," by Meilliae and Holvey; "The Sidehe of Ben Moore," by Ruth Sawyer; and "The Little Shepherdess," by Andre Rivoire.

Miss Margaret E. Rourke, who teaches this class, has had special training in dramatics at the University of Chicago and is an actress of great skill. Her success lies in her personality and powers of leadership. No matter how hard the task or how early the rehearsals the pupils always appear ready to do their part.

Mrs. Lora H. Robie.

"Come Out of the Kitchen," a three-act comedy by A. E. Thomas, was presented by the Senior Class of 1923, June 1st and 2nd, in the High School Auditorium. The parts were well interpreted and everyone did his own particular part in a commendable manner. Much of the credit for the success of the play goes to its able director, Mrs. Lora H. Robie. The proceeds from the play were used to help pay for the trophy case.

ACT I.

The scene opens with the four Dangerfield children waiting for the arrival of the white servants to take charge of their home. The parents are in Europe and are badly in need of additional funds. Consequently the children rent the house to a rich Northerner who is to arrive that day. The real estate agent comes and informs the children that the white servants are not coming. This is a terrible dilemma for the Dangerfields, because the Northerner, Burton Crane, refuses to have colored help in the house. The young people finally decide to act as servants and then the complications start, for one of the guests, Mrs. Falkener, is a fussy woman who insists on running everyone, including her brother, Solon Tucker.

ACT II.

The curtain rises on the kitchen, the time being three days later. All the children are downhearted, as their employer and his guests are very harsh. First the youngest Dangerfield is discharged for calling Solon Tucker a "Chempanzee," then Bess, for calling Mrs. Falkener an old "Harrican." The second act ends with Olivia in tears and despair.

ACT III.

The third act begins with the discharging of Smithfield. Olivia is the only servant left. After a talk with Crane she agrees to serve dinner for him. During the conversation at the dinner table Crane finds out that the children are not servants at all but really the Dangerfields. The curtain falls as Crane decides that he and Jane Ellen, alias Olivia, love each other.

Junior-Senior Plays.

RS. Lora H. Robic, Dean of Girls, has presented two very successful series of plays this spring, one for the benefit of the Girls' Opportunity Fund and the other for a New High School Trophy Case, which is to be placed in the front hall of S. H. S.

The first group was given March 23 and consisted of "The Noble Lord" by Percival Wilde and "Stop Thief" by Carlyle Moore. Both of these plays were exceptionally well acted. The casts are as follows:

"THE NOBLE LORD."

Lord BrookfieldHiram S	herman
She	et Reid

Opportunity Fund.

This is the fifth successful year for the Opportunity Fund, a fund which makes it possible for girls who lack money, but who have initiative and ability to continue their education. The plan was discovered by Mrs. Robie in March, 1920. The amount of money loaned out to date is $9,044.00 and the amount which has been paid back to date is $1,480.00. At present eighteen girls have used the money to further their education. Seven girls have borrowed money this year. The amount contributed to date is $7,214.61. This money has been received from various sources. Business men, civic clubs, high school organizations, patrons' clubs and many other organizations have contributed, some annually and others just once. Besides this, Mrs. Robie has given many entertainments for this fund.

Inter-Society Vaudeville.

F you had been lingering about the vicinity of S. H. S. on the evening of December 8, you would have noticed that the building was brightly lighted, and you could have heard the noise of an applauding audience within. The girls' societies were giving their third annual Inter-Society Vaudeville, and it was making a tremendous hit.

Les Bas Bleus, Philomachians and Thalians took part, directed by their faculty advisors and Miss Lomelino, Miss Mather, and Miss Mueller.

The first number on the program was an aesthetic dance by Mary Buckley, followed by an eccentric dance by Beatrice Older, Elizabeth Burr and Virginia McDonough. The next act was "The Way It's Done" in proposing, from the method of the caveman to that of the modern flapper, who popped the question herself. The third number was a satire on the movies of today called "Wotta-Movie." All the characters in this clever little skit, from the frenzied director to the blackhcarted villain, were well portrayed.

Dutch kids clad in brilliant scarlet enlivened the stage during the fourth act, with their local jokes and snappy songs. A great hit was made by the faculty number acted by Miss Mather, Miss Knudson and Miss Basford. They burlesqued a classical myth dressed as dark-town comedians, and were much applauded.

The feature of the program was "The Trysting Place," a oneact play by Booth Tarkington; into which were woven jazzy choruses and catchy songs. The course of true love didn't run smooth for the three pairs of lovers in the play, but all ended happily, and the curtain fell on a final tableau, which the applauding audience will always remember.

May Festival.

PRING was welcomed very prettily at the May Festival, May 4 in honor of the May Queen, Miss Phoebe Grace Coe. The program was arranged by Miss Grace Lomelino, head of the Girls' Physical Education Department, and Miss Katharine Mather, and was thought to be the most artistic entertainment of the year.

The program was in two parts; the first part the May Queen was crowned and the dances and drills were in her honor, while the second part was a dance fantasy arranged by Miss Lomelino.

The second part was a fantasy dance. The scene opens with a little child asleep in a garden. The Dream Fairy enters and weaves a magic wand. The Gipsy Maids then approach and dance for the child, then the clouds and lightning appear but are soon vanquished by the rainbow.

The next scene opened with the dance of the daisies and soon the attendants of Spring begin to arrive. The lightning again appears, but is driven out by the Sun Warriors and the Rainbow, and the curtain falls on a charming tablean of Spring in the garden.

The dancing-was done beautifully and quite surpassed all former May festivals.

THE PASSING SHOW

VOL. I. No. 1

EDITED BY FRANCES HENNE

"Or is there any show to pass?" said Chas. McGavin as he crammed for exams.

This paper is as passing as its name,
It will pass before your eyes, but never reach to fame.
It will prove a fitting pastime
Perhaps a little better with here and there a rhyme!

A Well Seasoned Affair.

Mary Frances SUMMERS walked into Room 301, where Mac WINTER and Kathryn SPRINGER were seated. We noticed Hollen Hyndman in the room and wondered if he would FALL for them all!

EXAM AND OTHER ATIONS.

(Tonic—Cramberry Sauce.)

The teacher weirdly announces the oncoming terror—examinations. Horror reigns supreme with the tearing of hair and gnashing of teeth. Consternation! The weary student bestirs himself and begins to study. Preparation. From the heretofore neglected volumes he acquires much knowledge. Annexation! 'Tis midnight before exams, but mercy, the algebraic formulas are not yet learned. Desparation. He already notices the effect. Suffocation. But, alas and alack, this League of Ations brings him no salvation for in the period of exam (where he knows nothing) he suffers annihilation.

(Finis!)

Small brother as he passed in an auto by a group of boys on Fayette: "Are any of you Hiram Sherman?"

Elinor Crook turning around from front seat: "Did he ask if any of them were Irish or German?" The golf course in the vaudeville was a striking affair. (Fore!)

If a Junior were a Senior
Then a Freshie'd be a Soph,
But what's the odds to Faculty
For a Prof would still be a Prof.

"Buy me a soda, Dod," said Roberta Conn.

"Haven't any money," said Florence Patteson brokenly.

WHAT THEY ARE NOTED FOR:

Andrew Juvenall is very noted for his flute practice. So energetic, so devoted is this young man to his art that the whole neighborhood takes the "air."

Mary Margaret Phillips—her coasting capabilities. Many ups and downs in your life, aren't there, Mary Margaret?

Jerome Webb—his—er—"Auburn" hair. Why study so hard, Jerome. You're bright enough anyway.

Dorothy Frost—her stage presence. It seems no more effort for her to act than for us to clap for her. (Quarter, please, Miss Frost!)

George Drach—his deep bass voice. Going down.

LAMENT OF PAUL KNUDSON.

I gaze down At. My feet. I ponder, Thinking How far away They seem. Can all the rest That lies Between, be Me?

Vernon Marvel: I think I'll read "Shadowland."

Katherine B.: You don't read that, you just look at it.

John S.: Don't you think that talkative women are the most popular.

Larry R.: What other kinds are there.

Bob Carnes: Aren't you losing flesh lately?

Nat Curran: Yes, I bought a safety razor.

Elizabeth Jennings: And he kicked me under the table.

Dexter Masters: And what were you doing under the table.

Mary Stuart: Can you tell me how to translate this French?

Mary M. Phillips: I could but do you think it will be right?

Mary S.: Probably not but I'll take a try at it and see how it sounds.

DAD'S POOR POCKETBOOK.

The fashion brought skirts down, But that's not why I'm blue; I'm sore because they failed To lower prices, too.

> A man Smokes for comfort; A woman Takes off her shoes.

Bessie B.: Did you hear about Hiram winning a loving eup?

Euphemia Miekens: Yes, isn't he good at it?

Voice (from dark parlor): "My, but your nose is cold!"

Small Brother (to irate father who is suspicious): "Gee, Pop, I bet Rover is in the parlor again.'

Kathryn Springer: "I'm afraid, Don, that I will never see you in heaven.''

Don Sehnepp: "Great Guns! What have you been doing now?"

Father: What is your favorite hymn, daughter?

Odell Gilbert: The one you chased out of the house last night.

George J.: Say, Ted, you didn't know that I was an electrician.

Ted P.: How's that?
George J.: Why, last night over at Poff's the light fuse burnt out.

Guess who fixed it. Me, I did. T. P.: Huh! You're no electrician-you're an idiot.

Maurice G.: You thinking much about exams these days?

Bessie K.: I'll take a passing interest in them.

Mr. Buley: What do you think of political parties?

Edna Laswell: I don't know, I never attended one of them.

Nathan J.: You talk like an idiot. Paul Weleh: I have to talk like that so you ean understand me.

Charlie was sure to go.

Bill Schaffner: Kenny, define dust.

Kenny Schnepp: Dust is mud with the juice squeezed out of it.

Miss Luke: What is the Latin Race?

Jack Orr: It's a race between a Latin pony and the teacher's goat.

Mrs. Lercher: Who were you riding with last night?

Everett: With some boys.

Mrs. Lercher: Well, don't leave the powder puffs in the back seat after this.

Grace Morgan: Why is Larry Ryan so sunburned? Didn't know that he went out for athletics.

Mildred Irwin: Doesn't; his bed is on the sunny side of the porch.

Mr. Stevens: No back talk young man.

Frank: Aw, who mentioned any backs?

We, the editors, may toil
Till our finger tips are sore,
But some poor fish is sure to say
"I've heard that joke before."

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

Miss Bouldin with bobbed hair.

Mae Hessinger going "steady" for over a month.

Portia Brockman flunking a subject.

Mr. Arnett on a kiddy-kar.

Mr. Thomas making fudge.

William Booth playing football.

Bob Carnes in love.

Edith Cummins skipping school.

Auntie Butler commending you for wasting time.

John Peters grown up.

Stanley Weisz talking baby talk.

Mr. Stevens allowing you to talk in study.

Dumb: That man over there is wanted in Chicago.

Bell: What for?

Dumb: He's a crook.

Bell: Why do they want any more crooks, in Chicago?

ZERO HOURS.

When you break your last quarter.

When you look at the taximeter.

When you see her with another fellow.

When you hear the alarm and also the rain.

When you watch the train pull out.

When you hear the tardy bell ring while you're at your locker.

When you get an office call.

When you watch the basketball skim the basket.

When you lose your latin.

When you think of two exams in one day.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN.

(By Hava Smoke)

Dear Hava: My fiancee says I have a peachy complexion. What does he mean?

Isabell Whittenberg.

Darnif I know, Isabell, he probably means that you have a yellow and orange shade with fuzz on your face.

Did you ever take her to a dance and after paying at the door find that you had only seventcen cents left? Then, after a rotten evening of worrying, have the dear thing suggest "Let's eat." And while you were wondering how to break the news, have a friend come up and say "Hello, old man, here's that ten dollars I borrowed last month."

NEITHER DID I.

Daughter: "Has my mail come yet?"

Mother: "Daughter you must stop using that terrible slang."

"Have you heard the story about the whip?"

"No—I—"

When first you went to see her
You showed a timid heart,
And when the lights were low
You sat this——far——apart,
But when your love grew warmer
And you learned the joy of kiss,
You knocked out all the space
And satupcloselikethis.

There are meters iambic, and meters trochaie,

And meters of musical tone; But the meter that's sweeter, completer and neater.

Is to meet her in the moonlight alone.

ADIEU.

The sun is sinking in the West Bidding all Nature go to rest; And with the closing of this day, We greet tomorrow on its way.

We greet the years whatc'er they mean

With high regard for right, we will Give S. H. S. the credit, still.

The class of Nineteen Twenty-Three Is soon to leave this school so free, The joy we've known, the pleasures,

Will ever linger firm and true.

May each one fill his humble place; Go firmly on and keep the pace, Be to the Class of Twenty-Three A star so bright that all may see.

May each his life so safely guide That truth and love will there abide, And at the close of years well spent Feel that he was of heaven sent.

The time for parting is at hand, The time to separate this band; So now we say to all of you, Not sad farewell—but fond Adieu.

-PORTIA BROCKMAN.

Nat Curren: "Haw, Haw, Haw!"
Miss Wilcox: "How dare you laugh out loud? Haven't I told you not to do so?"

Nat Curren: "Beg pardon, I laughed up my sleeve, but there was a hole at the elbow."

Andy Youngblood: "I hear you and Grace had a fall out last night. What's the trouble?"

Chas. Greenup: Oh, it was all her sister's fault. She set the alarm clock under the sofa and when it went off, from force of habit I shouted "Wake up you egg, it's time to move."

ON PUPPY LOVE.

Puppy love is one of the chief afflictions of youth. It makes no discrimination. It attacks the rich and poor, the fat and lean, the wise and ignorant. It attacks the famous football hero with the same ferocity that it does the obscure freshman. Its ravages rival the influenza in scope and the smallpox in severity.

No one knows what causes puppy love. All that is known is that its specialty is youth between the ages of fourteen and eighteen. A perfectly sound-minded boy may one day be seen rational and the next day be in the throes of one of the worst cases on record. Its actions resemble lightning in their swiftness. It is true, however, that the worst cases are of the shortest duration.

One of the chief factors in the disease of the past few years has been the modern sixteen-year-old vamp. I have in mind several of these whose lists of victims sound like the roll call of class officers, senators and varsity athletic teams. Their methods would make Cleopatra look like an amateur. They are exceptions, however, for the average vamp has to be content with an average of about six victims a semester.

Puppy love is not entirely confined to the male, although the severest cases are generally found there. I knew of a half a dozen girls who walked blocks out of their way just to pass the house of the captain of the football team. Several times they were rewarded by the sight of their hero, and immediately their hearts began to do double time. I have known others who sat in cars just outside of the athletic field for hours with the temperature near zero, just to get a glimpse of their hero, who was unsuspecting of their adoration.

Whenever a youth is seen walking the halls with a faraway look in his cycs, you know what is the matter. When you see him patiently waiting an hour after school has been dismissed, you know. When you arrive home unexpectedly and hear your brother giving a telephone number in a timorous voice, you know. When you see him stealthily looking through the card index in the office, there is generally a reason. The boy is in love.

This puppy love has unmistakable symptoms. When you can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, except about some wonderful being, and can't get the words of some sentimental song out of your head, you are probably afflicted. The best cure is to get about eight consecutive dates, call up at least twice a day, and don't let the object of your affections out of your sight for at least a week. If you can stand it this long, you have something besides puppy love.

A good case of puppy love is a lot of fun. No better enjoyment can be found. Your mind is in such a condition that everything seems perfect, and until your friends' "razzing" starts to tell or until you begin to see the shortcomings of your enamorata, you are in the seventh heaven of delight.

The recovery also is a queer sensation. It is like coming out of a cloud into the air. Actual life has a drab, matter-of-fact look and is anything but cheerful, especially if you have been flimmed. There is no white mule in the United States that can give a kick like that received when you just can't give up and at last have to sing the now popular song, "I Gave You Up Before You Threw Me Down." It is a sensation that would make a man out of a mollycoddle and produce gray hairs in a negro's head.

The consensus of opinion on the subject seems to be this: "It's a lot of fun if you can hold your own. If you can't, you have my sympathy."

OH, MISTER.

She was preved and called him Mister.

Not because he went and kister, But the thing that made her sore Was, that on the night before This same mister, kister, sister,

(With apologies to Bill Shakespeare) To go, or not to go: that is the question.

Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to

The torments of two hours detention, Or take to my heels at the sound of the last bell,

And go to Knox's? To go: to suffer; No more; and by suffer to say we get Abomnible detention and an hour of explanation

To Lyman K.? 'Tis a situation Devoutly to be shunn'd. To skip, to loaf;

To loaf: perchance to miss an exam: ay, there's the rub;

After missing an exam what tears may come,

When I have gazed upon my monthly grades,

Must give me pause.

ON THE WIRE.

R-r-r-rin-in-ing.

"Hello H y z fraternity?"

"Yes."

"Is Harold there?"

"No.

"Is Dave?"

"I'm afraid not."

"Then Joe?"

"I'm sorry."

"Well, I'm awfully lonesome. Won't you come over?"

"Oh, thanks."

"By the way, who is this?"
"The Janitor."

BANG.

THE WIFE'S TEN COMMAND-MENTS.

I am thy love, thy wife, thou shalt have no other loves than me.

Thou shalt not take unto thy heart any stenographer or any other lovepirate, thou shalt not bow down and worship them or even take them out to dinner, for I, thy wife, am a jealous wife, and shall visit all the sins of thy past upon all thy future; but I shall show merey to thee as long as thou lovest me alone.

Thou shalt not promise to love me in vain, for I shall not hold thee guiltless if thou promiseth in vain.

Remember that thou come home the Sabbath. Six days mayest thou wander, but not six nights; nor on the seventh day which is the day of thy wife.

Honor thy mother-in-law, that thy days may be long in the land of matrimony.

Thou shalt not carry a latch-key.

Thou shalt not return to thy happy home at three o'clock in the morning. The doors will be bolted if thou dost.

Thou shalt not grumble at thy lot.

Thou shalt not object to buttoning my dresses; nay, even if they be five hundred button dresses.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's peace; thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's pleasure; nor his wife's sweet temper, nor other things that are his.

Miss Peaches: "Henry, dear, what is the translation of the motto on the ring you gave me?'

Henry: "Faithful to the last."

Miss Peaches: "The last! Oh, Henry, how horrid, why you've always told me I was the very first!"

LOAFER'S CLUB.

Franklin Cochran: Let's speak to those girls on the corner.

Earl Cruthis: 'Sno use, they're telephone girls.

Franklin: Well, what of it. Earl: They won't answer.

Miss Wilcox: Have you ever read proof?

Hiram: No, who wrote it?

Corinne Whelan: Bill is the laziest man in school.

Flora S.: How come?

Corinne: Last night when he said "Goodnight," he threw me a kiss.

Freemont Blandin: How dare you pass me on the street?

Daisy Quarles: Oh, I beg your pardon, Freemont, you have on a new pair of shoes and I didn't recognize you.

Paul Welch (yawning): Aw-a-a-um-m.

Frances Fowler: Paul, you should cover your mouth with your hand when you yawn.

George Irwin: He can't. His hand isn't big enough!

"Stew" Ogg: I'm not going to ask another girl to go with me to that dance.

"Jew" Jerald: S'matter "Stew?"
Turned down again?

"Stew": Nope, accepted!

Mr. Buley tells this one:

He: Biggs is quite a literary man. He's contributed to the Atlantic monthly.

She: How come?

He: Since he joined the navy, he's gone to Europe and back three times in the last three months, and contributed to the Atlantic monthly.

The waitress was bringing on the boullion. "No, thanks," says Stan Weisz, "I don't care for coffee."

Peters: Say, my girl is an angel.

Pctefish: You never expect to see her home do you?

FAMILIAR FRAZES.

Lyman Davis—Keep moving. Mr. Willing—Use the walks. Rodrick Antrim—Little brown

Mr. Simpson—Have I ever told you, etc.?

Edna Atkins—Where were you vesterday?

Auntie Butler—Stop this talking or you go back to study.

Mary Margaret Phillips—I say, old thing.

Phoebe Coe-Now you quit.

Edith Poole—But this is so sudden.

Hawk's Palace—Chorus— Hamburgers, Chilli and hot dogs.

The lights went out, the school grew dim.

The boy's heart bounded with joy in him.

He said to her, "May I take you home?

Your mother'd be scared and you can't go alone,"

But, shucks! the lights went on again:

He couldn't take her home; and then He had just lost a wondrous chance, And stubborn fires were in his glance.

Lillian Simpson: What's the matter with Bob Harris? I thought you and he were such good friends.

Cornelius Haag: We were, but I took him for a fifty-mile trip on my motorcycle, and he's been sore ever since.

"There's room at the top,"
The Senior said.
As he placed his hand
On the Freshman's head.

Stella: "I'm to be married next week and I'm terribly nervous."

Ella: "I suppose there is a chance of a man getting away up to the last minute."

Egg: My baby has Pullman teeth! Nog: Zatso? What d'ya mean? Egg: One upper and one lower. Books, books, books, books, Books, books, books.

That make me swear, Or tear my hair,

Are these confounded

Yellow bound, Red bound, White bound, Green bound, Gilt bound, Silver bound, Copper bound, Blue bound, Girl Graduate Books agoing 'round.

William Clifford, seeing a sign on a restaurant reading "Chille—Ice Cream," remarked disgustedly, "Well, who ever saw ice cream that wasn't chilly?"

Harry Wright: I have all of my work in except "The Saturday Night Bath."

Miss Dean: Well, Saturday is coming, for goodness sakes get it done.

Our "Jawn."

He tore his hair in wild despair.
Then wrung his hands in pain,
He leapt up into the startled air,
And then came down again.

Nay, grieve not for his woeful lot, And have for him no fears, A maniac as yet he's not, He simply leads our cheers.

Teacher: You have a father? Kid: Naw? Paw died of exposure.

Teacher: Poor man! How did it happen?

Kid: Another guy snitched and they hung him.

"I was riding in a taxi with a negro driver one dark night, we came to a dark corner, and—"

"Yes, yes, go on!"

"He asked me to put out my hand."

Stuart Becker: It's something like bread.

Lives of great men all remind us, As their pages o'er we turn, That we're apt to leave behind us, Letters that we ought to burn.

R. Bone: Have you seen the new toboggan slide?

Marjorie Madden: Why no, I haven't been to a dance for ages.

Roses are red, Vi'lets are blue; Garlie is strong— I'm garlie for you.

Nate Jerald: Listen, please, I appeal to you—

Mary Pride: Not in the least.

Ray Thompson: You have such pretty hair.

Helen Cornwell: Do I?

Dorothy Cornwell (from behind portierre): She has some prettier than that.

Lives of editors remind us,
That our lives are not sublime,
For we have to work like thunder,
Getting copy out on time.

Ford Hauserman: What is a lipstick?

Wayne Hofferkamp: That's what makes the tulips bloom all winter.

NOTHING ELSE.

Margaret Bugg: "When Bob danced with me last night he kept letting his hand slip down my back."

Portia Brockman: "I hope you rebuked him."

M.B.: "I did; I told him to keep it up."

Mr. Stevens (to Mrs.): My dear, the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world.

Mrs. S.: Very well! Then take Chester and rule the world while I get supper. Jack Orr: You've used the word "goof" a good many times since I've been talking to you. Am I to understand you to mean anything personal?

Esther Taylor: Goodness, no! There are lots of goofs in the world besides vou.

Farmer: See that old man over there? He's licked about every man in this town when he was in his prime.

Robert McCrotty: Huh! Prize
